About SORBONNE UNIVERSITY ABU DHABI

Sorbonne University Abu Dhabi was established in 2006, under the patronage of His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan, President of the United Arab Emirates and Ruler of Abu Dhabi.

The university benefits from Sorbonne's 750+ years of academic excellence and educates students of more than 100 nationalities with 28 undergraduate and postgraduate programmes in Sciences, Humanities, Languages and Social Sciences, plus customised continuing and executive education courses.

Bachelor and Master degrees offered by the university are awarded by Sorbonne Université and Université Paris Cité, recognised globally and accredited by the UAE's Commission for Academic Accreditation (CAA).

The university also offers a variety of scholarships, including the HH Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan 100% Scholarship for Emirati nationals and children of Emirati mothers in addition to academic excellence scholarships and preferential rates.
